THE WANDERER:
13 x 30:00 Hi-Def

HI-DEFINITION

T Tyler MacLeod adventurer, international television presenter and global traveler has taken the ultimate plunge. Leaving behind his comfortable Toronto life, he has packed all his worldly possessions into a backpack and set out on a life changing journey that will take him to the Four Corners of the globe.

He will wander the planet, trading his labor for food and shelter – simply going where his heart, his soul, and his fate may take him...

His adventures could take him anywhere from shoveling dung at an elephant treatment clinic in Sri Lanka to walking baby bears somewhere in the wilds of the U.S. But one thing is for certain. Along the way, he will meet some of the most fascinating people imaginable. Do not be surprised to see him speaking with the great Richard Leakey in Kenya, Willie Smits in Borneo or Jane Goodall in Africa.

Tyler will travel by foot, pushbike, bus, train or hitchhike. He will stay in shelter provided wherever he can get work or in backpacker hostels. Many times, he will sleep under the stars. He will be totally immersed in each location - the work, the play, and most especially the people who surround him. And then, once the work is finished, and the adventure has run its course – he will pack his trusty backpack and set off down the road towards his next adventure – whatever and wherever it may be.

Often hilarious, occasionally tragic, and always fascinating – with each new adventure Tyler will become synonymous with that archetypal character so beloved by audiences everywhere – the quiet helpful stranger.

And so, to millions around the world, Tyler MacLeod is destined to become known and loved simply as THE WANDERER.
